5th Sunday of Lent

Stewards are God's People

"I will be their God and they shall be my people."

- JEREMIAH 31:33

What does it mean to be God's people? It means we recognize that everything we have and everything we are belongs to God. We aren't "owners" of anything, we are merely "Stewards" of the gifts God has given us. It means we are willing to use our gifts and our lives to care for our family, our neighbors and for people we don't know, just as God cares for each of us.

A Message from our Pastor, Rev. Joseph T. Szolack

Dear Friends in Christ,

“In the Roman Missal we find the instruction, ‘In the Dioceses of the United States, the practice of covering crosses and images throughout the church from [the fifth] Sunday [of Lent] may be observed. Crosses remain covered until the end of the Celebration of the Lord’s Passion on Good Friday, but images remain covered until the beginning of the Easter Vigil.’” The idea is to close off our senses in order to heighten them for the celebration of Easter. The veils are not meant to be covering the images forever. Is this not what our life is like in this “veil of tears” as we pray in the hymn Salve Regina? We cannot see heaven and we are reminded that the sin and darkness of this fallen world keep us from seeing His glory and His reflection in the saints. We might veil our statues at home as well or put away sacred images until the end of Good Friday. This is, in a way, a type of fasting. I worked in an Italian restaurant when I was in high school. Every day, Italian food, washing the dishes, mopping the floor and smelling the same smell every day. After a while I no longer longed or appreciated the savory Italian dishes. I grew to temporarily loathe them (thank God that did not last!). We have so much and our appreciation of things can be dulled. Do without and then appreciate their goodness. We have suppressed the Gloria during Lent and have not sung the alleluia. The hand bells will stop ringing at the Mass on Holy Thursday night and be replaced by a clunky, wooden clacker. All this to cleanse our senses, if only for a short time, in order to see the revealing of the glory of God. We hear Simeon say to the Holy Virgin and Saint Joseph in the Temple when he takes the baby Jesus into his arms, “My own eyes have seen the salvation which You have prepared in the sight of every people: a light to reveal You to the nations and the glory of Your people Israel.” (Luke 2:30-32). We have so many beautiful customs in the Church and the veiling of statues is one of them. I remember a number of years ago, someone said to me when I veiled the statues, “Oh, you are so old fashioned!” I could only say, “Well, thank you for the compliment...” Speaking of a veil, N.T. Wright said, “[Jesus] is, at the moment, present with us, but hidden behind that invisible veil which keeps heaven and earth apart, and which we pierce in those moments, such as prayer, the sacraments, the reading of scripture, and our work with the poor, when the veil seems particularly thin. But one day the veil will be lifted; earth and heaven will be one; Jesus will be personally present, and every knee shall bow at his name; creation will be renewed; the dead will be raised; and God’s new world will at last be in place, full of new prospects and possibilities.” Uh oh, am I being “old fashioned” again?

God bless you,
Father Szolack

WE’VE MISSED YOU!!

It’s hard to believe that this pandemic has kept up apart for so long! We hope that you and your families have been well and want you to know that we have been thinking about you and praying for you while we have been apart. We hope you were able to lean on the Lord for the strength and sustenance that was needed to navigate this pandemic.

We’ll be hosting a ZOOM call during what used to be our normal meeting times, following the 6:00pm Mass from 7:30pm - 8:30pm. Catch up on what’s been happening in your lives, play a round or two of KAHOOT, or just chat.

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

Who is the RCIA or Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults for? Think about the following...
ARE YOU SOMEONE OR DO YOU KNOW SOMEONE WHO...

- Has expressed an interest in becoming Catholic who has never been baptized or baptized in another Christian denomination
- Has a child over the age of seven who has not been baptized?
- Was baptized Catholic as a child, but has not celebrated the Sacraments of Confirmation and/or Eucharist?

Then the RCIA may be the answer since it provides an opportunity to learn more about our Catholic faith. Due to the pandemic restrictions on meetings, we offer remote sessions that focus on the teachings and experience of Church and prepare individuals to celebrate the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist. There are also remote sessions for children or youth. You are welcome to come and see if this is what you are looking for. Come with your questions, your insights and share your faith story. You will have the opportunity to grow in your relationship with God in a welcoming parish community.

To learn more about The RCIA or completing your Sacraments, please call Mary Jo Dwyer or Trudy Cranston at 856-227-0555 for more information.

ADULT FAITH HOME SERIES: It's a hit!

Due to the pandemic, we discovered that people were interested in a home series. Each topic covered allows for a relaxed review of different Catholic teachings. Below are the topics of our first series.

OUR 1ST SERIES TOPICS:

TRINITY; CREED and 4 MARKS OF THE CHURCH; SACRAMENTS OF INITIATION; SACRAMENTS OF HEALING; SACRAMENTS OF SERVICE; MARY and THE SAINTS; FORMS OF PRAYER; UNDERSTANDING THE MASS.

Since classes have not yet resumed due to recent COVID spikes, a 2nd series is in the works:

OUR 2ND SERIES: CELEBRATIONS and FEAST DAYS OF THE CHURCH YEAR.

If you are interested in brushing up on your Catholic teachings please email me to be added to our Adult Faith Formation community. There is no cost for this remote learning. Please specify if you are requesting series 1 or 2 (when it is finished). Those of you on our distribution list will automatically be sent the 2nd series topics until you email me to STOP.

Once we are able to safely meet, we will continue with our Jeff Cavin's Bible Timeline series. Until then we enjoy the opportunity to continue our faith learning in this remote way. We look forward to your reflections, questions and comments on our presentations.

Reflexión, Quinta Semana de Cuaresma

Como un Grano de Trigo

No es de ningún modo razonable buscar dolor y sufrimiento, sin embargo, sabemos que en la vida hay ciertos sufrimientos que tenemos que aceptar en línea con nuestras tareas - una mujer tiene que pasar por los dolores de parto para traer un niño al mundo, los padres tienen que sacrificarse por sus hijos, las enfermeras tienen que dedicarse a aliviar las penas de los enfermos. Sí, la semilla tiene que morir en el surco para dar vida a una nueva planta. Hoy Jesús nos invita a seguirle aceptando el dolor y los esfuerzos necesarios para llevar a cabo nuestra misión en la vida.
