The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Perfect Steward

"Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them and they all drank from it." - MARK 14:23

Jesus, the perfect Steward, gave thanks, just before He gave Himself up for our salvation. He offers us the same chance to drink from His cup. In the bread and wine, we meet Christ personally. If we follow Him, drinking from His cup means our own self-sacrifice, using all of our gifts for the benefit of others and to do His work on earth.

A Message from our Pastor, Rev. Joseph T. Szolack

Dear Friends in Christ,

Last weekend, we celebrated the Solemnity of the Holy Trinity. This weekend, we are privileged to honor the Body and Blood of Our Savior Jesus Christ. This feast day is affectionately known as the Feast of Corpus Christi. Saint Cyril wrote of the Blessed Sacrament:

Godhead here in hiding, whom I do adore
Masked by these bare shadows, shape and nothing more,
See, Lord, at thy service low lies here a heart
Lost, all lost in wonder at the God thou art.
Seeing, touching, tasting are in thee deceived;
How says trusty hearing? That shall be believed;
What God's Son has told me, take for truth I do;
Truth himself speaks truly or there's nothing true.

The Holy Sacrament of the Altar is the Real Presence of Our Lord Himself. How blessed we are as Catholics to have this gift! I cannot imagine not being of the true faith in order to be in Communion with the Holy One of God under the disguise of Bread and Wine. Saint Francis de Sales said of the Blessed Sacrament, "When you have received Him, stir up your heart to do Him homage; speak to Him about your spiritual life, gazing upon Him in your soul where He is present for your happiness; welcome Him as warmly as possible, and behave outwardly in such a way that your actions may give proof to all of His Presence." It is always good to review the Church's customs and teachings that surround our life with the Blessed Sacrament. Firstly, this is the first Sunday in a year that all Catholics are bound, under pain of mortal sin, to participate in Holy Mass in person. One is not in mortal sin for having missed Holy Mass this past year. Now, we are obligated to attend. One should only receive Holy Communion in a state of grace or not being in mortal sin. Mortal sin is serious matter; sufficient reflection and full consent of the will. In other words, if we miss Mass, think about it and choose not to go, we have committed a serious sin. This does not mean if one is sick or has a very good excuse that we are in sin for missing. This is just an example. We should not receive Holy Communion until we have gone to confession. This is the teaching of the Church. Receiving the Lord in mortal sin is a sacrilege. Let us also remember to genuflect (if possible) whenever we enter the church before entering our pew or when we pass before the Blessed Sacrament. We should also make a sign of reverence before receiving the Lord. The bishops of the USA allow for a bow before receiving the Lord. We should answer "amen" rather than grunt and we should either receive on the tongue or if receiving in the hand, one hand under another. Only those who cannot use both hands should receive in one hand. Holding a Rosary, Kleenex, car keys, etc. are not a good excuse. I would see if one hand has a cane, then it is understandable. When we go back to our pew, we should kneel in prayerful thanksgiving for the glory we have just received. Finally, how beautiful it would be to have people not chatting in church. We could make our House of Charity goal if I had a dollar for every complaint I receive about the talking in church. People long to pray and meditate before the Sacrament. The open discussion is unbelievable and so loud. Some do not even try to whisper. Please, for your fellow brothers and sisters and even more so, out of respect for the Lord, let us speak in very hushed whispers in church when necessary and spend the time well talking to the Lord. He would really love to hear from us, I am sure.

God bless you,
Father Szolack
