19th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Stewardship Joy

"Get up and eat or the journey will be too much for you!" 1 KINGS 19:7

God knows that committing to a Stewardship lifestyle is difficult. However, we were not designed to do it on our own, we need His help. Fortunately, God gave us the greatest gift of all, His son, Jesus. Through the gift of the Eucharist, we join our sacrifice with the sacrifice of the Holy Mass and receive the strength and courage to be His joyful disciples.

A Message from our Pastor, Rev. Joseph T. Szolack

Dear Friends in Christ,

Perhaps many are taking time for a vacation or just to enjoy time with family before autumn begins before we know it. As every day, it is a time to reflect on where we are in our relationship with the Lord. The summertime can test our relationship with Him. As we are more laidback in everything, we can become “laidback” in our religious life. Perhaps we do not attend Sunday Mass here or there; we skip the Rosary or do not take time to meditate on the Word of God. Very often, we feel, I will worry about it in September. In reality, now is the time to get back to a disciplined schedule. Saint Ignatius of Loyola taught, when it comes to the spiritual life, there is no plateau. There is no vacation from God. We are either going up or we are going down. Richard Hollerman writes, “Let’s now consider spiritual fervency. One of the leading characteristics of our life in Christ should be our fervent devotion to Him. We should be consumed with God’s will (1 John 2:17), God’s truth (John 8:32), God’s Word (John 17:17), along with God’s honor, plans, and glory! It was written concerning Jesus, “Zeal for Your house will consume me” (John 2:17) and a zeal for God like this should grasp our heart as well.” We owe God so much for all He has given us. Psalm 116:12 proclaims, “How can I repay the Lord for all the good that he has done for me?” Yes, the time of slacking is over. Every day is a new day in the Lord’s Vineyard. It may seem like déjà vu as we see the virus variant rising. This satanic illness which continues to cause great fear and confusion in people’s lives and which affects our time to grow as a parish family. There are still parishioners that have not returned to Holy Mass. They are very much missed and I am confident that the one thing we should not cut out is the Mass. We need to be with Him and to receive graces beyond our imagining. We are hearing the Gospel over these weeks showing the multiplication of the loaves. The prefigurement of the greatest of all gifts is a foretaste of Heaven when, through the mercy of God, will be open to us. Many people are living in fear of dying and this is very real. The Lord God when He created us put in us a will to live. The important thing is to be in a state of grace so that should any sorrow befall us, we will always be ready for our ultimate journey. I do not say this in a morbid or cavalier way, but rather, I say it with trust in all that the Passion, Death and Resurrection of Our Savior offers us. As Our Lady reminds us always, we are a people of hope. Saint Paul tells us, “For this world as we know it will soon pass away.” (1 Corinthians 7:31). We always live prepared.

God bless you,
Father Szolack

Cremation and Proper Handling of Cremated Remains.
Your Choices Don’t Stop with Cremation

While you may have chosen to be cremated, remember to choose your final resting place. Although the Church earnestly recommends the pious custom of burying the bodies of the dead be observed, it does not however, forbid cremation unless it has been chosen for reasons which are contrary to Christian teaching. Cremated remains are the body of the deceased in a changed form. We should honor them as we honor the body. They must be reverently buried or entombed in a place reserved for the burial of the dead. When choosing cremation, there are many choices available including:

Ground Burial / Granite or Glass Niches / Crypts / Addition to Family Lot or Crypt

Visit SouthJerseyCatholicCemeteries.org to learn more or call us at 855-MyPrePlan (855-697-7375) and a member of our staff will gladly assist you.

Is there a restaurant on the bulletin you like? Is there a home improvement project you've been putting off? Have you been thinking about finding a new doctor? Have you been thinking about selling your house? Do you need answers to a few legal questions? Is there a tree in your yard that needs attention?

Everyone has answered YES to one if not all of these questions. Before you begin looking for anything, check if the goods/services you need are offered by a bulletin advertiser in the Finding Faber™ app. You may find a promotion or coupon & be able to Support our advertisers AND Save!
