The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Stewardship Reflection

*“And Mary said, “My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord; my spirit rejoices in God my savior.”
Luke 1: 46*

After Jesus, we look to Mary as our model of Stewardship. Her entire life was lived in obedience to God’s will. Just as the moon reflects the light of the sun, Mary reflects the light of Christ. Like Mary, we too are called to reflect Christ to the world. We do this by living grateful and generous lives. We do this by putting other’s needs before our wants.

A Message from our Pastor, Rev. Joseph T. Szolack

Dear Friends in Christ,

Many of you may have read in the Catholic Star Herald that Our Lady of Hope made the House of Charity goal! Thank you so much, in the name of those in need, to the faithful who gave to this important collection. We will receive money back and I am particularly grateful to a family who gave a very substantial gift towards our goal. You know who you are and you know that I could never thank you for your generosity. God bless you and your great love for Our Lady. One can still give to this collection and be part of beautiful work done in the name of the Lord. We are having problems with our outdated air conditioning system in Our Lady's Chapel. We have daily Mass in the chapel amongst other groups involving prayer and adoration of the Real Presence. I will keep you informed as we may need a new unit. Finally, this year, the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary is not a holy day of obligation as it falls on a Sunday. May the Lord bless each of through the intercession of the Most Blessed Virgin Mary as we celebrate our dearest Mother Mary. Pope Pius XII wrote about the Assumption of Our Lady, "Hence the revered Mother of God, from all eternity joined in a hidden way with Jesus Christ in one and the same decree of predestination, immaculate in her conception, a most perfect virgin in her divine motherhood, the noble associate of the divine Redeemer who has won a complete triumph over sin and its consequences, finally obtained, as the supreme culmination of her privileges, that she should be preserved free from the corruption of the tomb and that, like her own Son, having overcome death, she might be taken up body and soul to the glory of heaven where, as Queen, she sits in splendor at the right hand of her Son, the immortal King of the Ages." (Apostolic Constitution Munificentissimus Deus Defining the Dogma of the Assumption, 40). The holy Mother of God helps us to look forward to, through the merits of Christ, our possible entry into Heaven. Do we want to go to Heaven? What do we think of the afterlife? Jesus tells us, "Do not let your hearts be troubled. You believe in God; believe also in me. My Father's house has many rooms; if that were not so, would I have told you that I am going there to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am." (John 14:1-3). God wants us to be with Him in Heaven! He also gives us a choice. Some people say that they do not believe in hell. Even if the existence of hell were not a doctrine of the Church (it is a doctrine), logic would tell us that there has to be an alternative to Heaven, otherwise we are not free to choose. The Lord loves us enough to allow us to choose. Our life should be a yes to God...a yes expressing our desire to live eternally in the presence of the Lord. To believe that no matter what we are going to heaven veers into the sin of presumption. God is mercy, this we must never deny, but He wants us to freely choose Him. Who would want someone to love them without a choice? It is a beautiful thing when we know that someone has fallen in love with us and we choose to love them in return. It is no different with God. The First Letter of St. John 4:8 tells us that "God is love." God is watching us and He thirsts for our love. The Assumption is a feast of victory for Jesus Christ, may we all be swept up in that victory, not because we can presume it, but because we desire it, because we long for it and thus we must live our lives accordingly. May our dearest Mother, the Holy Mother of God, inspire to love her Son and live His Gospel with zeal.

God bless you,
Father Szolack

ITEMS NEEDED:

PASTA (no wheat please) and CEREAL

The heat and humidity trudges on and so do the volunteers of St. Vincent DePaul, serving 30 to 40 families each week who rely on us for assistance with groceries to help them through to the next paycheck. While many of us are fortunate enough to enjoy a summer vacation, most of our families struggle just to pay the electric bill to keep cool. Every single item you donate to our pantry is truly appreciated. We also welcome SHOP RITE GIFT CERTIFICATES & POOR BOX donations. Thank you!

Cremation and Proper Handling of Cremated Remains.
Your Choices Don’t Stop with Cremation

While you may have chosen to be cremated, remember to choose your final resting place. Although the Church earnestly recommends the pious custom of burying the bodies of the dead be observed, it does not however, forbid cremation unless it has been chosen for reasons which are contrary to Christian teaching. Cremated remains are the body of the deceased in a changed form. We should honor them as we honor the body. They must be reverently buried or entombed in a place reserved for the burial of the dead. When choosing cremation, there are many choices available including:

Ground Burial / Granite or Glass Niches / Crypts / Addition to Family Lot or Crypt

Visit SouthJerseyCatholicCemeteries.org to learn more or call us at 855-MyPrePlan (855-697-7375) and a member of our staff will gladly assist you.
