23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Faithful Stewardship

"Did not God choose those who are poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom that he promised to those who love him?" JAMES 2:5

What is more important to a Steward – being rich in faith or rich in possessions? Society tells us that possessions are most important. God teaches a different lesson. When we are rich in faith, we keep God first and experience true joy and peace. When we put possessions first, we soon realize we can never have enough and happiness is fleeting. When we put faith over possessions, we truly realize it is better to give than receive.

A Message from our Pastor, Rev. Joseph T. Szolack

Dear Friends in Christ,

In Saint Paul's Letter to the Colossians we read, "Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, as in all wisdom you teach and admonish one another, singing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs with gratitude in your hearts to God. And whatever you do, in word or in deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him." (Colossians 3:16-17). Work can sometimes be a drudgery or an effort at best. We do not always see the fruits of our labor and thus, work is something to avoid. As our country celebrates the dignity of workers, we realize that the Lord, who labored for our salvation, lifts the work that is done in His name to a whole new, supernatural level. The motto that Saint Ignatius of Loyola gave to his Society of Jesus is Ad majorem Dei gloriam: To the greater glory of God. Everything that we offer to the Lord allows it to be touched by His grace and it purifies and blesses our intentions. With prayer and offering to God, the least attractive of works can be blessed encounters with the Lord. Even our spiritual life takes work. The Lord is our great example as He spent long hours in prayer in far off places. We too must fulfill our spiritual commitments: never missing Holy Mass on Sundays, reading the Bible, praying the Holy Rosary and going to confession regularly. These basics are work and we might add additional prayers that bring us to the feet of the Lord. Very beneficial is the Morning Offering. When we commit all that we will do in the day first thing in the morning, we are calling the Lord to bless those moments of labor that unfold throughout the day. A traditional prayer for one's Morning Offering is the following:

O Jesus,
through the Immaculate Heart of Mary,
I offer You my prayers, works,
joys and sufferings
of this day for all the intentions of Your Sacred Heart, in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass
throughout the world,
in reparation for my sins,
for the intentions of all my relatives and friends,
and for the intentions of the Holy Father.
Amen.

God bless you and have a blessed Labor Day!
Father Szolack

Dear Parishioner...

Is there a restaurant on the bulletin you like? Is there a home improvement project you've been putting off? Have you been thinking about finding a new doctor? Have you been thinking about selling your house? Do you need answers to a few legal questions? Is there a tree in your yard that needs attention?

Everyone has answered YES to one if not all of these questions. Before you begin looking for anything, check if the goods/services you need are offered by a bulletin advertiser in the Finding Faber™ app. You may find a promotion or coupon & be able to Support our advertisers AND Save!
