Stewards Stand Erect

"But when these signs begin to happen, stand erect and raise your heads because your redemption is at hand." (LUKE 21:28)

We celebrate Advent each year in preparation for the birth of Jesus, His first coming, as we await His second coming. What will you do differently this Advent season to grow in friendship and love with Jesus? How will you live Stewardship? How will you inspire others to do the same? Start by sharing your God story with others, especially those closest to you. Invite and accompany them on their faith journey this Advent.

A Message from our Pastor, Rev. Joseph T. Szolack

Dear Friends in Christ,

We come to the First Sunday of Advent, a season of penance and preparation. Dietrich Bonhoeffer said in 1943, "A prison cell, in which one waits, hopes...and is completely dependent on the fact that the door of freedom has to be opened from the outside, is not a bad picture of Advent." We are now embarking on another Advent, a time to prepare for the coming of the Lord. At different times in our lives we may feel trapped, trapped in our habits, our sins or our weaknesses. There seems to be such little hope around us. Whether it be the world stage, division in our country or confusion in our Church, our cell becomes more confining on our souls. Now, we begin a new year in the Church filled with new opportunities. We can have new opportunities to connect to God, to find Him deep within ourselves and to discover him in our neighbor in His distressing disguise in the poor. A baby always brings new hope, new possibilities to a family. Well, it is the longing for a King who came among us as the humblest, most vulnerable of people: a baby. This Super Baby comes to save us from sin and death. He alone brings eternal life. The cell doors of our soul might be flung open and only Jesus has the key to our hearts. Let us prepare for our visitation from Jesus. We need to read the Bible, pray to the Lord daily, speak to Our Lady, go to confession and be faithful to weekly attendance at Mass. Yes, Advent helps us to realize that there is an answer to all our problems. He is a baby born in Bethlehem, grew up in Nazareth and conquered the world with His love one person at a time. The title of Stefan Cardinal Wyszynski's autobiography was Freedom Within. These are his memoirs while imprisoned by the Communists. No cell could contain his soul and so it is with us. Jesus is coming to us...do we really want the cell doors of our soul opened? Do we really want to celebrate Christmas? Jesus opens our door so that we are free to live...really live. Maranatha! Come Lord Jesus! Set us free!

God bless you,
Father Szolack

TURKEYS, HAMS, YAMS, STUFFING, CRANBERRY SAUCE.

In addition to Turkeys, hams & trimmings, we are also very low on the following: GRAPE JELLY, SYRUP, PANCAKE MIX.

While our familiar "Giving Tree" is not present in the gathering space, we are still collecting GIFT CARDS to distribute to our clients so that they can purchase gifts for their children. Cards should be from places such as Walmart, Target, 5 Below, etc. We will distribute them beginning Dec. 11th in order to allow the parents time to shop. There are bins for the gift cards in the Church gathering space but turkeys & hams should be dropped at the pantry on Saturday mornings between 9 & 11:30 am as there is no refrigeration in the church. Please note that the pantry is CLOSED this weekend so that our volunteers can enjoy their Thanksgiving weekend. We will reopen next Saturday, December 4th.

Blessing & Prayers for Advent Wreath

Prepare for the approaching celebration of the birth of Christ.

An Advent wreath is a wreath of laurel, spruce or similar foliage with four candles that are lighted successively in the weeks of Advent to symbolize the light that the birth of Christ brought into the world. Traditionally three of the candles are purple, the color of kings and of penance. A rose-colored candle is used to mark the Third Sunday of Advent as a time to rejoice over the closeness of Christmas and the coming of Christ.

Each day your family should gather around the Advent wreath, generally before the evening meal. The proper number of candles are then lighted and a prayer is said.

BLESSING OF THE ADVENT WREATH

It starts at the evening meal on the Saturday before the first Sunday in Advent with the blessing of the wreath. (The head of the household is the one designated to say the prayers, following which various members of the family light the candles. The following prayer can be used.

Leader: Our help is in the name of the Lord.

All: Who made heaven and earth.

Leader: O God, by whose Word all things are sanctified, pour forth Your blessing upon this wreath and grant that we who use it may prepare our hearts for the coming of Christ and may receive from You abundant graces. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

All: Amen.

The wreath would then be sprinkled with water. Then follows the prayer which is said before the evening meal each night of the first week in Advent.

FIRST WEEK The following prayer should be repeated each day during the first week. After the prayer, the family's youngest child lights the first purple candle. (Family members can also take turns lighting and blowing out the candles on each night.)

Leader: O Lord, stir up Thy might, we beg Thee, and come, That by Thy protection we may deserve to be rescued from the threatening dangers of our sins and saved by Thy deliverance. Through Christ our Lord.

All: Amen.

NEWS AND EVENTS

We have come to the final opportunity for you to speak up and let the Holy Spirit speak through you regarding how our Church on a local, diocesan and universal level can most effectively lead the People of God to come together in communion and participation to fulfill the mission Christ has set forth for His Church. Our Holy Father has given us this opportunity to help define concrete ways that we can be the Light of Christ to all people, in all circumstance, in all places and in all times.

You may complete the questionnaire anonymously on the parish website. Alternatively, printed copies of the questionnaire are available in the gathering space or can be downloaded from the parish website and a clear, plastic box is provided for you to submit the completed forms. You may also return them to the Parish Office via mail or dropping them off. Feel free to take questionnaires home for family and friends. It has been a pleasure for the SYNOD team to a part of this process and we truly see the Holy Spirit working in and through our parishioners. Let Him work through you by sharing your story and your prayerful hopes for our Church. We will begin the work of compiling all the responses in a summary report to the Diocese this week.

- Has expressed an interest in becoming Catholic (not baptized or baptized in another Christian faith)?
- Has a child over the age of seven who has not been baptized?
- Was baptized Catholic as a child, but has not celebrated the Sacraments of Confirmation and/or Eucharist?

Then RCIA may be the answer since it provides an opportunity to learn more about our Catholic faith. We now offer remote sessions. To learn more call Mary Jo Dwyer or Trudy Cranston at 856-227-0555

REFLEXIÓN

Vigilantes, Pero no con Miedo

Mucha gente en el mundo está sentada en la oscuridad del hambre, del sufrimiento, de la violencia. Y a pesar de ello, si somos Pueblo de Dios, mantenemos indestructible la esperanza de que la verdad, la bondad y la justicia prevalecerán un día, porque creemos que Cristo nuestro Señor ha venido y vive entre nosotros. Luchamos, sabemos que el camino es escabroso, pero el Señor viene con nosotros y nos dice: Ven conmigo, sirve conmigo, ama conmigo, comparte y date a ti mismo conmigo, y así tú serás mejor, y la Iglesia y el mundo serán también mejores.
