Stewardship Possessions

"Everyone of you who does not renounce all his possessions cannot be my disciple." LUKE 14:33

When we first hear this statement, it seems that Jesus is making an unrealistic demand upon us. How can we renounce all of our possessions? We need them to live. However, we as Stewards must renounce the belief that they belong to us. Everything that we have belongs to God alone. All of our resources are entrusted to us not only for our own use, but also so that we can help others.

Once we renounce the idea that we possess or are entitled to anything, it is much easier to share the many gifts that God has given us. Then we truly are His Disciples.

A Message from our Pastor, Rev. Joseph T. Szolack

Dear Friends in Christ,

As our young people prepare to go to school, we are reminded that the summer is spent and we will now start off the season of activity. Firstly, I wish every blessing as students are off to Pre-school, grade school, high school or university. Henry Ford once said, "Anyone who stops learning is old, whether at twenty or eighty." It is a lesson to all of us that we must continue to learn. We should spend time pouring over Sacred Scripture and it is a good idea to read the Catechism of the Catholic Church. A good book about a saint's life is well worth spending one's time. A recommendation is Trustful Surrender to Divine Providence: The Secret of Peace and Happiness by St. Claude de la Colombière who was the spiritual director for Saint Margaret Mary Alacoque, the devotee of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. I read that the average Catholic has the knowledge of a second grader concerning their faith. We know the basics, but the rich history, knowledge and wisdom of the Holy Catholic Faith is gigantic. One could spend forever simply pondering over the art and architecture of the Catholic faith. There is so much anger and ugliness in our world right now. The beauty of our faith is worth pondering. The daily recitation of the Holy Rosary is so rich on so many levels. The Rosary can give us strength and discipline when we are suffering from one or more the deadly sins. Dr. Brennan Purcell wrote, "Faith stimulates reason and elevates it. Faith allows us to see the unitive nature of truth, goodness and beauty, and the mysterious person who embodies them. Faith provokes good questions. It demands 'why,' beyond the 'how much,' 'what,' 'where,' 'when' and 'how.' All such questions are part of the great and timeless search for truth." While the internet can be a distraction and even bring darkness into our lives, it can also provide us with a plethora of theological lectures, Biblical commentary and study. Because we are finite, we do not need to avoid pondering and studying the infinite. 2000 years of Christianity is a lot to dive into, let alone the movements of God before Christ. "Fides quaerens intellectum" (Faith seeking understanding), is a great phrase to inspire and guide us in life! Happy studying!

God bless you,
Father Szolack

Pray for our Military men and women: Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform for us in our time of need. Bring them home safely. May their sacrifices bring about a lasting and just peace in all lands. We ask this in the name of Jesus, Our Lord and Savior. Amen.

Please include these requests from our Parishioners in your prayers:

However, some items on our shelves go quicker than others, so if you are able, please donate an item or two as listed above. ### Cremation and Proper Handling of Cremated Remains Your Choices Don't Stop with Cremation

While you may have chosen to be cremated, remember to choose your final resting place. Although the Church earnestly recommends the pious custom of burying the bodies of the dead be observed, it does not however, forbid cremation unless it has been chosen for reasons which are contrary to Christian teaching. Cremated remains are the body of the deceased in a changed form. We should honor them as we honor the body. They must be reverently buried or entombed in a place reserved for the burial of the dead. When choosing cremation, there are many choices available including:

Private Family Cremation Estates □ Granite or Glass Niches □ Ground Burial □ Addition to Family Lot or Crypt

Visit SouthJerseyCatholicCemeteries.org to learn more or call us at 855-MyPrePlan (855-697-7375) and a member of our staff will gladly assist you.
