Stewardship Givers

*"Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh."
MATTHEW 2:11*

The image of the Magi kneeling before the infant Jesus and opening their treasure chests for Him is an image that we should all try to follow each day. In gratitude for all that we have been given, we as Christian Stewards are called to generously share all of our gifts, not just the ones we pick and choose. God wants us to be generous with everything, but especially that one thing that means the most to you.

A Message from our Pastor, Rev. Joseph T. Szolack

Dear Friends in Christ,

This past week, the Funeral Mass for our beloved Pope Benedict XVI took place in Saint Peter's Square. It is a very poignant moment for the Church, and I must say for me personally. I was privileged to have met Joseph Cardinal Ratzinger before he became Pope Benedict, and I was in his presence as pope when he was in New York. This brilliant light in the Church will not be extinguished as we have his voluminous writings to absorb for the years to come. One of my favorite quotes attributed to the holy Pontiff is, "Truth is not determined by a majority vote." I recently heard in part of the Meghan Markle saga that people said, "She has a right to express her truth." There is only one truth and what is not true is false. Jesus said that He "is the way, the truth and the life." The Lord reflects the truth in all its beauty and power and these many years, Pope Benedict has striven to find and teach the truth in a time where so many are living in the shadow of deception. A nurse who was present at the death bed of Pope Benedict reported that his last words uttered were, "Lord, I love You..." I cannot find words to express what this says.

Recent expressions of our parish's love for the Lord have moved me greatly. Our Advent was beautiful with many hours of hearing confessions. We had a night of reflection and our celebration of Our Lady of Hope with our prayer decorations luminating our two trees in front of the church. Thank you to all who decorated our church for Christmas under the direction of Liz Hamilton and for our choir and cantors under the direction of John Wernega and Ted Kiefer. Thank you to the Knights of Columbus for hosting the Bonsal Blues Concert and above all to everyone who came to Holy Mass and showed love and adoration as we celebrated the birthday of the Newborn King. I am so grateful for the generosity of our parish in their Christmas donation and for the donation towards our flowers. Finally, on behalf of not only myself, but Fathers March and Antony, thank you for so many cookies, bottles of wine, gift cards and other forms of generosity to each of us. You are so kind and generous. All of this and so much more expresses a true love for the Lord Jesus. Pope Benedict's entire life was summed up in his final words, "Lord, I love you." May our lives grow to be a synthesis of these same words so that in our own unique way, we will express a love for our Savior not only in words, but in the way we have lived our lives.

Blessed New Year to everyone!
Father Szolack

Pray for our Military men and women: Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform for us in our time of need. Bring them home safely. May their sacrifices bring about a lasting and just peace in all lands. We ask this in the name of Jesus, Our Lord and Savior. Amen.

Please include these requests from our Parishioners in your prayers:

ITEMS NEEDED: PASTA SAUCE, INSTANT POTATOES, SOUP

Many families still continue to struggle with job loss and having to decide between groceries and utility bills. We are fortunate that our pantry shelves remain full – thanks to your generosity – and no one is turned away from our doors. We kindly remind you that donated groceries should be left at the rear of the church in the usher's room before any Mass or dropped off on Saturday mornings at the Parish Center between 9 and 11:30 am.

Prayer for the repose of the soul of Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI

A prayer for- the soul of Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI:

Father, eternal shepherd,
hear the prayers of your people for your servant Benedict,
who governed your Church with love.

In your mercy, bring him with the flock once entrusted to his care to the reward you have promised your faithful servants.

May he who faithfully administered the mysteries of your forgiveness and love on earth,
rejoice with you for ever in heaven.

In your wise and loving care, you made your servant teacher of all your Church. He did the work of Christ on earth.

May your Son welcome him into eternal glory.

May your servant whom you appointed high priest of your flock be counted now among the priests in the life of your kingdom.

Give your servant the reward of eternal happiness and let your mercy win for us the gift of your life and love.

We entrust your servant to your mercy with faith and confidence. In the human family he was an instrument of your peace and love.

May he rejoice in those gifts for ever with your saints.
Amen

Epiphany Prayer

Lord Jesus, may Your light shine our way,
as once it guided the steps of the Magi:
that we too may be led into Your presence
and worship You,
the Child of Mary,
Mother of God,
the Word of the Father,
the King of nations,
the Saviour of mankind;
in union with Your heavenly Father
and the Holy Spirit,
You are One God
forever and ever,
amen.

January 2023!

We hope these timeless quotes from Winnie the Pooh (A. A. Milne) bring you joy:

"I wasn't going to eat it, I was just going to taste it."
"A hug is always the right size."
"If the person you are talking to doesn't appear to be listening, be patient. It may simply be that he has a small piece of fluff in his ear."

Four tips to help you make simple changes and stay healthy for the long run:

- Be realistic about changing your eating habits.
- Drink more water.
- Prioritize your sleep hygiene.
- Schedule an annual check-up with your provider.

Saint's Corner: St. Christopher: According to these accounts, St. Christopher was extremely tall, and by some accounts he was even a giant! He was surely a man of significant physical stature. But, more importantly, he was a spiritual giant and a sure model and inspiration for the Christian faithful. Christopher decided one day that he wanted to serve the greatest king he could. He presented himself before his local ruler and entered service, until he noticed the king cross himself at the mention of the devil, revealing that the king believed the Devil to have more power. St. Christopher then decided to serve the Devil. During his search, he encountered a band of thieves, whose leader referred to himself as the Devil. But when this leader avoided a Christian cross out of fear, St. Christopher learned there was someone even more powerful than the Devil. St. Christopher found a hermit who taught him all about Christ, the King of Kings. The hermit suggested that he spend his life in prayer and fasting, a thing which St. Christopher, a large and probably often hungry man found difficult, he objected. The hermit suggested he then find something else that would please Christ. St. Christopher offered to work at a nearby river and help travelers across. The fording was dangerous and many with less strength people had drowned. The hermit advised St. Christopher this would please Christ. One day, a child approached St. Christopher by the river and asked to be helped across. St. Christopher obliged. However, as he entered midstream, the river rose, and the child's weight grew and became extremely heavy. It was only by great exertion that St. Christopher safely delivered the child to the other side. When St. Christopher asked the child why he was so heavy, the child explained that He was the Christ and when St. Christopher carried Him, he also carried the weight of the whole world on his shoulders. The child then vanished. The name "Christopher" means Christ-bearer and may allude to the legend of the man carrying the Christ Child across the river. Saint Christopher also did not become popularized in the Church until the 7th century, about three centuries after his supposed death. We know of his popularity because around the 7th century, churches and monasteries began to be named after him. This adds credibility to the supposition that St. Christopher was merely a legendary figure and not a real person. St. Christopher is the patron saint of travelers and of children. His feast day is July 25. Because he is not officially recognized by the Church, he has no date of beatification or canonization. Despite these technicalities, it is widely thought that he was real and that he continues to intercede on behalf of Christians, especially children, today.

Faith Formation Classes:

Feliz día de los Reyes Magos

La Epifanía del Señor

La celebración de Epifanía, que significa “manifestación”, es para nosotros como una segunda Navidad. Es en realidad, la Navidad de las Iglesias Orientales. Esta fiesta proclama que Jesús Niño pertenece y se entrega al mundo entero como su Salvador. Con los Magos, el mundo entero trae a Jesús su variedad de dones: sus culturas, sus muchas peculiaridades, sus diferentes identidades. Y nosotros aquí y ahora, al igual que las gentes de otras naciones, le traemos el don de nosotros mismos: nuestra fe, nuestro propósito de fidelidad, nuestro amor, al encontrarnos con él en la oración y en los hermanos, especialmente en los más pobres.

BAUTIZOS

Los bautizos se celebran todos los tercer sábados del mes a las 10:30am. Próximo bautizo; sábado 21 de enero.

Para bautizar, debe de llenar aplicación antes de la clase pre bautismal. Llame para más información al número que aparece arriba esta página.

Reflexión Espiritual

En preparación del domingo, enero 15, 2023

Primera lectura: ISAIAS 49: 3. 5-6.

Segunda lectura: CORINTIOS 3: 1-3.

Evangelio: JUAN 1: 29-34.

ORACIÓN

Oremos a Dios nuestro Padre para que Cristo llegue a ser la luz de todos. Oh Dios de todas las naciones, pueblos y culturas, éste es el día que tú has hecho radiante y luminoso con tu luz y tu amor, con destino para todos. Guíanos en los nuevos caminos de tu Hijo. Que tu luz bondadosa brille en todas partes, para que todos los pueblos te alaben en su propio lenguaje, conforme a su cultura, y enriquezcan a tu Iglesia con sus propios y peculiares dones. Te lo pedimos en nombre de Jesús, Señor y Salvador todos por los siglos de los siglos.

ROSARIO

Hacemos el rosario todos los domingos a las 8 am. Acompáñenos llegando temprano para que pueda participar del rosario en la mañana del domingo.
