"Thus, the last will be first, and the first will be last". - Matthew 20:16

You've heard the saying "it's not where you start, but how you finish." This certainly applies to this Bible passage. We have a responsibility not only for our own lives, but for the lives of others as well. We are called in Stewardship to generously share our gifts with others, not hoard them for our own use. Our sincere gratitude and cheerful generosity will help us live "God-centered" lives and not "self-centered" lives.

Dear Friends in Christ,

Once again, our parish is blessed to host a special Mass offered by Bishop Sullivan. This Mass is will be the annual Blue Mass which honors Police, Fire and First Responders. This is the 22nd year that this Mass has been celebrated. I can still recall after the attacks on 9-11 being in New York City with police officers on every corner. I would hear people say, "Good Day Officer" or "Thank you." It was moving for me to see the smile on the officers' faces as they received a greeting. When I was in Colombia, when you passed a soldier, you would give a thumbs up in support their service. A few years ago, I was preparing to board a flight and the desk called two Marines up to the desk and informed them that they were being moved up to First Class. I could hear one of the Marines speaking to his mother on his cell phone, "Mommy, I am coming home on First Class! What a welcome!" Boy, do they deserve ever more than that! Former parishioners had their house catch fire and the firemen pulled pictures off the wall and saved the woman's wedding ring before the house collapsed. Heroes...true heroes. Yes, we need to honor our brave men and women who protect our nation, our towns, and our very person and so we owe these men and women all respect and gratitude. I am the son of a police officer and call a number of officers friends. I am so proud of my dad's memory and of my friends who have retired or who continue to serve. I love to concelebrate the Blue Mass and as the pastor of Our Lady of Hope, to join the bishop in welcoming all these wonderful heroes, their families, and friends to Our Lady of Hope. The Blue Mass will take place on Friday, September 29, 2023, at 10:30 AM in our church. All are invited to attend this special blessing. Our own Deacon Toby Haley will be the homilist. Thank you to all those in blue and every man and woman who keep us safe! God bless you and protect you! May all those who have died rest in peace with the Lord and be rewarded for their service! We especially pray for Deptford Officer Bobby Shisler. St. Michael, watch over them!

Yours in Our Lady of Hope,
Father Szolack

Pray for our Military men and women: Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform for us in our time of need. Bring them home safely. May their sacrifices bring about a lasting and just peace in all lands. We ask this in the name of Jesus, Our Lord and Savior. Amen.

Please include these requests from our Parishioners in your prayers:
