Unselfish Stewardship

"Do nothing out of selfishness; rather, humbly regard others as more important than yourselves..." Philippians 2:3

Pride and ego are hard things to control. We see how others act or dress and think we are superior to them. We idolize our own self-image. But, if we truly believe in Stewardship, everything is a gift from God, we recognize all the people that God has put in our lives as gifts! We are grateful for how they enrich our lives. Pray every day for the people in your life: your family, your friends and those who make you angry.

PRAY FOR OUR DECEASED:

Margorie McGinn

Dear Friends in Christ,

October is a beautiful month for a wedding and to celebrate a wedding anniversary. Recently, I was having dinner in a restaurant, and I was with a couple married over sixty years! What an edifying witness to true commitment. The catechism states “Sacred Scripture begins with the creation of man and woman in the image and likeness of God and concludes with a vision of ‘the wedding-feast of the Lamb.’ Scripture speaks throughout of marriage and its ‘mystery,’ its institution and the meaning God has given it, its origin and its end, its various realizations throughout the history of salvation, the difficulties arising from sin and its renewal ‘in the Lord’ in the New Covenant of Christ and the Church.” (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1602). The importance of marital commitment cannot be underestimated as it reflects the relationship that God has with His Bride, the Holy Catholic Church. On Sunday, September 24th, Bishop Sullivan celebrated with couples throughout our diocese special wedding anniversaries for this year. We are blessed to have notable couples from our parish whom I am proud to wish both congratulations on their anniversary and the request from God that they be blessed with good health and holiness.

Norman and Eileen Glenn	60 years
Anthony and Elvira D’Orazio	60 years
Robert and Jane Wright	52 years
James and Jane Coolen	50 years
Vincent and Theresa Wall	50 years

O God, in whose plan family life has its firm foundation, hear with compassion the prayers of Your servants and grant that, following the example of the Holy Family, they may praise You without end in the joy of your house. Through Christ our Lord. Amen. (The Order of Blessing a Married Couple within Mass on the Anniversary of Marriage).

God bless you and your families who rejoice in your love and example.

God bless you,
Father Szolack

Pray for our Military men and women: Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform for us in our time of need. Bring them home safely. May their sacrifices bring about a lasting and just peace in all lands. We ask this in the name of Jesus, Our Lord and Savior. Amen.

Please include these requests from our Parishioners in your prayers:

We Our ministry is dedicated to helping those in need all year long. With your help, we provide a wide variety of staple groceries to carry a family (or an individual) through to their next paycheck or until they get back on their feet. Without the generosity of our parishioners, this would be an impossible task. We are truly thankful and so are the dozens of families we help every single week.

2023-2024 Communion Year

It is that time of year where our young people begin their journey towards their First Eucharist. The information meetings for our children for First Eucharist will be September 25, 2023 and October 2, 2023. The meetings will begin at 7:00pm in the Parish Center hall. You choose one of these meetings to attend. You will be given an information packet that will guide you through the year.

Faith Formation Project:

The children in our Weekly Faith classes (Monday evening) are involved in a project. They will be making a saint doll. They will be responsible for researching their saint, dressing it accordingly and writing some information about that saint. On October 30, 2023, they will present their saints during our class time in a program called, "When the Saints Come Marching In". This project will help them in learning more about their Catholic faith. We are looking forward to leading the children through this exciting time.
