Gifted Stewards

"Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour." - Matthew 25:13

Many of us have put off doing something because we think we are too busy. We've all said, "I'll do it later when I have time." Unfortunately, too many of us apply this attitude to our Faith. Jesus' call is urgent, in the here and now, in your current circumstances. How is God calling you to use your gifts in Stewardship today? Don't delay. None of us is guaranteed tomorrow.

PRAY FOR OUR DECEASED:

Rosemary Schipsi

Dear Friends in Christ,

We continue to pray for our beloved dead during the month of November. Death is a fact for all of us no matter how much or how little we have. Certainly, death has been on the minds of so many of us as the news everyday announces how many people contracted Covid 19 and how many died from Covid complications. Death has been described as the “Great Equalizer.” It is thought by many that everyone goes to heaven when they die; it does not matter how they lived their life and what was their relationship with God. Pope Benedict XVI said so often, “They live as though there was no God.” The Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1021-1022 says, “Death puts an end to human life as the time open to either accepting or rejecting the divine grace manifested in Christ. The New Testament speaks of judgment primarily in its aspect of the final encounter with Christ in his second coming, but also repeatedly affirms that each will be rewarded immediately after death in accordance with his works and faith. The parable of the poor man Lazarus and the words of Christ on the cross to the good thief, as well as other New Testament texts speak of a final destiny of the soul – a destiny which can be different for some and for others. Each man receives his eternal retribution in his immortal soul at the very moment of his death, in a particular judgment that refers his life to Christ: either entrance into the blessedness of heaven-through purification or immediately, or immediate and everlasting damnation.” The famous quote from the movie Braveheart is so true, “Every man dies, not every man really lives.” How we live is essential to where we go when this life ends and how we will spend eternity. In the Catholic faith, our Church teaches us great respect for the body. When I was first ordained, a body could be cremated after death, but was not brought into the church. The Church now permits a cremated body contained in an urn to be brought into the church for a Funeral Mass. The Church teaches that cremation is licit so long as one does not disdain the body which is anointed at Baptism and Confirmation. The ashes of the cremated are not scattered but are to be placed in the earth or crypt in imitation of Our Savior. We should not keep an urn in our home. I recall someone telling me that when they bought a home, they found two urns with ashes in the attic! Absolutely forbidden in our faith is the separation of the ashes of the deceased to distribute amongst loved ones or to have ashes placed in jewelry to be worn such as earrings or in a necklace. This is becoming a trend, but it is to be avoided. This is the most vulnerable time for a family and certainly. We want to send off our dear ones with the gift of the Holy Mass which helps them to reach the place prepared for them from all time. We are blessed in our parish to have two groups that carry out beautiful ministry: the Bereavement Committee which helps the families to plan their deceased loved one’s Mass and the Grief Support Ministry who follow up and help people to get through the pain of losing a loved one through death. This entire month of November finds us celebrating votive Masses in honor of the faithful departed. It is so important to pray for the dead so that they may be cleansed in purgatory and then go before the Lord in Heaven. Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon them. Amen. May they rest in peace. Amen. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed rest in peace. Amen.

God bless you,
Father Szolack

Pray for our Military men and women: Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform for us in our time of need. Bring them home safely. May their sacrifices bring about a lasting and just peace in all lands. We ask this in the name of Jesus, Our Lord and Savior. Amen.

Youth Faith Formation News

Faith Formation Project

The Saint Project was a huge success! The children made and dressed paper dolls like Saints. They had to find a Saint, research the information and present it in class. This is the fruit of their labors. We are so proud of the work they did and we would like to take this opportunity to share them with you. A giant thank you to all the children, the Catechists, and the student's parents for participating in this project. Our next project is called "Gifts of Giving" where we are asking the children to bring in items for the St. Vincent De Paul Society. We hope the children will see the joy of giving. As we are approaching the holidays, many families are in great need and we are asking our Faith Formation children and families to participate in the Gift of Giving.
