"I will be their God and they shall be my people." - Jeremiah 31:33

What does it mean to be God's people? It means we recognize that everything we have and everything we are belongs to God. We aren't "owners" of anything, we are merely "Stewards" of the gifts God have given us. It means we are willing to use our gifts and our lives to care for our family, our neighbors and for people we don't know, just as God cares for each of us.

A MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR, REV. JOSEPH T. SZOLACK

Dear Friends in Christ,

It has been said that on Saint Patrick's Day everyone is Irish. I grew up in Saint Patrick Parish in Woodbury learning the song Great and Glorious Saint Patrick. Yes, "great and glorious country, pray for that land, the land of our fathers!" I am always disappointed when Saint Patrick is portrayed as a caricature of a person. He was a missionary of great spirituality and was tough as nails. He died in Downpatrick in Ireland on March 17, circa 493. When Saint Patrick was kidnapped and sold into slavery as the age of sixteen, he prayed, "the love of God and His fear increased in me more and more, and the faith grew in me, and the spirit was roused, so that, in a single day, I have said as many as a hundred prayers, and in the night nearly the same, so that whilst in the woods and on the mountain, even before the dawn, I was roused to prayer and felt no hurt from it, whether there was snow or ice or rain; nor was there any slothfulness in me, such as I see now, because the spirit was then fervent within me." While a slave, God brought good out of evil as Patrick learned the Irish language and learned about the ins and outs of druidism which he would fight as he brought the true faith to the Irish isle. This great saint did incredible things on behalf of the Lord. So many Irish priests and religious women have spread the faith throughout the globe including within the Diocese of Camden. As a young priest, two of my pastors were from Ireland, County Mayo, and County Cork. I enjoyed the faith and great story telling of the Irish priests with whom I have worked with. I still recall having the privilege of climbing Croagh Patrick and visiting the shrine of Our Lady of Knock. It was a rainy day and very rugged, but it was a day where I saw deep prayer. The Catholic Church is suffering from heresy and secularism in Ireland now and we must pray for this great land since the persecuted Catholics of Ireland gave so much to the world. The religious vocations in Ireland, so numerous at one time, have dried up to a trickle. The spirituality of the Irish is often penitential as the Irish suffered for the True Faith. When we say, "It is a great day for Irish" we should realize that it is a great day to celebrate the Catholic faith of the Irish. Rather than a day for inebriation, my first pastor from near Knock told me that on Saint Patrick's feast day, the family would go to Holy Mass, have a family dinner and the men might go to the local pub for a pint. Debauchery is not worthy of the great Missionary of Eire. May Our Lady of Knock, Queen of Ireland, pray for the homeland of the Irish who are scattered throughout the world. The most famous part of the Breastplate of Saint Patrick continues to inspire:

Christ with me, Christ before me,
Christ behind me, Christ within me,
Christ beneath me, Christ above me,
Christ at my right, Christ at my left,
Christ in the fort,
Christ in the chariot seat.
Christ in the heart of everyone who thinks of me,
Christ in the mouth of everyone who speaks to me,
Christ in every eye that sees me,
Christ in every ear that hears me.

Happy Saint Patrick Day,
Father Szolack

Pray for our Military men and women: Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform for us in our time of need. Bring them home safely. May their sacrifices bring about a lasting and just peace in all lands.

We ask this in the name of Jesus, Our Lord and Savior. Amen.

Please include these requests from our Parishioners in your prayers:

Needed: HAMS & CANDY (for Easter Baskets), JARS OF PASTA SAUCE

Spring officially begins this week and our volunteers remain busy as bees helping to feed the many needy families in this area.

VOLUNTEERS WANTED...

Are you looking for a way to feed the hungry right here in Gloucester Township? St. Vincent DePaul is looking for additional volunteers in the following areas:

- ◆ Packing and distributing food from our pantry once a month on a Saturday morning from 8:45am to 11:00am.
- ◆ Picking up messages from our hot line (right from your home) and calling the client back to assign a pick up time. You would be trained and assigned a specific day each month.
- ◆ Helping with the food bank delivery the second Wednesday of the month. (varies – you would receive a phone call when the truck is due to arrive -usually am)

There are many good people who tell us to call them when we need help, but we need individuals who can commit to the task so that we have the necessary “hands on deck” when we need them. If you are able to help in any of these areas, please contact Anna at 609-280-0726.

Pontifical
Good Friday
Collection

Pope Francis has asked our parish to support the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, which helps Christians in the Holy Land, where they are now less than 2% of the population. Your support is essential to help the Church minister in parishes, provide Catholic schools, and offer religious education. The Pontifical Good Friday Collection also helps to preserve the sacred shrines of Christianity, including in Jerusalem, Nazareth, and Bethlehem, to name only a few.

The pandemic had hit Christians in the Holy Land particularly hard. Most of them depend on pilgrimages for work. The war made their situation even more dramatic. In these times of crisis, the Pontifical Good Friday Collection is necessary to meet the basic needs of the People of God still living in this Land and to maintain a Christian presence where the Church was born.

When you contribute to the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, you join with Catholics around the world in solidarity with the Church in the Holy Land. PLEASE BE GENEROUS!

Communion News:

We are getting ever closer to celebrating First Communion with our children. The Communion Masses will take place on Saturday April 13, 2024 and Saturday, April 20, 2024. The ceremonies will begin promptly at 10:30am so we ask that the children are here and lined up no later than 10:15am. You may arrive earlier if you would like to get a few pictures in the church before the Mass begins. Once the ceremony begins, we ask that you not get out of your seat to take photos. There will be a rehearsal/retreat for each of the Communions. The dates are in your packets you received earlier and they will be posted in the bulletin next week. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact the Office of Faith Formation at 856-227-0555.

Communion Pictures:

Maggie Shaw, a photographer from Impact Photography, will be in the Parish Center on Wednesday, April 3, 2024 from 4:00pm until the last appointment. If you have already made your appointment with her, thank you. If you still are interested in having Communion photos done, please contact her at: 609-654-5069 to make an appointment.

Son Seekers:

Our Son Seekers registration is about to open this week, Many of you have expressed interest in the program. We look to have the website up and running around March 20, 2023. If you have questions, please let us know.

Saint Patrick:

Saint Patrick was the son of a Roman military officer stationed in Britain but Patrick was more interested in religion. At the age of sixteen, he was captured by Irish pirates and taken to Ireland. For six years he worked as a shepherd, suffering from cold and hunger as well as his loss of freedom. He finally turned to God, his only hope, as he looked for a way to return to Britain. Eventually he escaped aboard a German vessel, paid his way by taking care of a pack of stolen dogs the crew planned to sell. Back at home, Patrick, became a priest. When the Church discussed sending missionaries to Ireland, Patrick remembered his days in slavery and struggles to decide whether or not to volunteer. Finally, when the bishop of Ireland dies, Patrick asked to go. He had a dream in which voices of Irish people called to him, "We beg you to come and walk with us again." Though Patrick was not well educated, the pope saw in him the qualities of a missionary. In addition, Patrick already knew the language of Ireland and had spent fifteen years in parish ministry. At the age of forty-two, Patrick was ordained a bishop and sent to northern and western Ireland, where no one had ever preached the Gospel before. Patrick showed compassion for all classes of people He set up monasteries and convents, established parishes, adapted Irish celebrations to Christian feasts and worked to destroy paganism. His prayers kept him calm whenever British priests criticized his way of ministering or when enemies tried to damage his reputation. In response to his critics, Patrick wrote his Confession, a kind of autobiography in which we find the facts of his life. Today Patrick's feast is a worldwide day of celebration. He is the patron saint of Ireland and Nigeria.
