Stewardship Service

"There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone." - 1 Corinthians 12:4-6

All of us are blessed, regardless of our own individual circumstances. God has given each of us many gifts. How we use those gifts is our gift back to God. For God's plan to work, each Steward must do what we are called to do. Guess what? We are not all called to do the same thing! For God's plan to work you have to do what God is calling you to do and I have to do what God is calling me to do.

A MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR, REV. JOSEPH T. SZOLACK

Dear Friends in Christ,

Pentecost Sunday is the birthday of the Catholic Church! This is when the Holy Spirit came down upon Our Lady and the Apostles forming and emblazing the Church. This is what allows us to be the Body of Christ even in our own day. The Catechism of the Catholic Church, 687 and 688, says of the Holy Spirit, the Third Person of the Blessed Trinity: “‘No one comprehends the thoughts of God except the Spirit of God.’ Now God's Spirit, who reveals God, makes known to us Christ, his Word, his living Utterance, but the Spirit does not speak of himself. The Spirit who “has spoken through the prophets” makes us hear the Father's Word, but we do not hear the Spirit himself. We know him only in the movement by which he reveals the Word to us and disposes us to welcome him in faith. The Spirit of truth who ‘unveils’ Christ to us ‘will not speak on his own.’ Such properly divine self-effacement explains why ‘the world cannot receive [him], because it neither sees him nor knows him,’ while those who believe in Christ know the Spirit because he dwells within them. The Church is a communion of faith transmitted by the apostles and it is in life of the Church where we know the Holy Spirit:

- in the Scriptures He inspired;
- in the Tradition, to which the Church Fathers are always timely witnesses;
- in the Church's Magisterium, which He assists;
- in the Holy Mass, through its words and symbols, in which the Holy Spirit puts us into Communion with Christ;
- in prayer, wherein He intercedes for us;
- in the charisms and ministries by which the Church is built up;
- in the signs of apostolic and missionary life;
- in the witness of the saints through whom He manifests His holiness and continues the work of salvation.”

Awareness of the actions of the Holy Spirit, calling upon Him to animate your soul is most beneficial. We rejoice in the many cultures of our parish, yet we rejoice more in our unity through the Holy Spirit who operates through His Holy Catholic Church.

God bless you,
Father Szolack

Pray for our Military men and women: Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform for us in our time of need. Bring them home safely. May their sacrifices bring about a lasting and just peace in all lands.

We ask this in the name of Jesus, Our Lord and Savior. Amen.

Please include these requests from our Parishioners in your prayers:

Happy Mother's Day!

We are currently very low on the items mentioned above. With so many generous parishioners, a donation of even one item helps to keep us going week to week. Our pantry is open every Saturday from 9:30 to 11:00 a.m. and our client list seems to grow constantly. We are grateful for your support in making this ministry a vital link to the poor in our community. Donations can be left at the back of the church before any Mass or at the Parish Center on Saturday mornings between 9 and 11:00 am.

It's Peanut Butter/Jelly time!

Last year the children in our Son Seekers program made over 2,700 sandwiches for the Cathedral Kitchen in Camden. We are looking to surpass that number this year as many people are still in need. We are seeking help from the parish to help us get there. We are asking for donations of 18 ounce or smaller jars of peanut butter and either grape or strawberry jelly/jam. Also, we are in need of sandwich size baggies with the sliding lock. If you can help, please drop off your donation in the bins in the gathering space. Any questions, please feel free to contact Cathy Bennett in the Faith Formation office at 856-227-0555. Thank you!

Pope Francis and Hope:

In his homily on November 1, 2013, Pope Francis said, "To see God, to be like God; this is our hope. This is a beautiful image of hope: to have our hearts anchored there, where our beloved predecessors are, where the Saints are, where Jesus is, where God is. This is the hope that does not disappoint; today and tomorrow are days of hope. Hope is a little like leaven that expands our souls. There are difficult moments in life, but with hope the soul goes forward and looks ahead to what awaits us. Today is a day of hope. Our brothers and sisters are in the presence of God and we shall also be there, through the pure grace of the Lord, if we walk along the way of Jesus. "
