Stewards Commit

"If it does not please you to serve the Lord, decide today whom you will serve...As for me and my household, we will serve the Lord."
Joshua 24:15

When we commit to serve the Lord, we become Stewards in the work of the Lord. A disciple is a person who spends time in prayer every day, joyfully participates in charitable works and generously supports their local parish and Church mission. If we say we serve God, our words and actions should reflect the Gospel message to others.

A MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR, REV. JOSEPH T. SZOLACK

Dear Friends in Christ,

August 26th is the Feast of Our Lady of Czestochowa, the Queen of Poland. The entire month of August is dedicated to the Immaculate Heart of Mary, so it is one of our Marian months. There are so many beautiful renditions of Our Holy Mother, and this is one of the most beloved, even outside of Poland and the Polish diaspora. The holy image is housed in the great monastery at Jasna Gora. In Catholic Straight Answers we read: "The devotion to Our Lady of Czestochowa centers on the icon of our Blessed Mother. Painted on wood, the icon itself depicts Mary pointing with her right hand and holding the Infant Jesus in her left; technically, this depiction of the Blessed Mother is identified in iconography as "Hodegetria." As in other icons, Jesus looks like a small man held by his Mother, an imagery which reminds the faithful that Jesus is fully mature in His divine nature. Over time, due to exposure to devotional candles, the image has darkened, and consequently, Our Lady of Czestochowa is also known as the "Black Madonna." As to its origins, tradition holds that St. Luke painted the icon on a wooden tabletop made by St. Joseph, which Mary had kept when she moved to Ephesus and lived under the care of St. John the Apostle. Remember St. Luke included in his gospel details of the annunciation, visitation, Christmas, the presentation in the Temple, and the finding in the Temple which were not included in the other gospels and which he must have learned from Mary herself. St. Helena is credited with finding the icon in the early 300s." When Saint John Paul returned to Poland in 1979, he spoke of his motto which was Totus tuus ("I am all yours"). He said that he had whispered these words in prayer so many times before this Image." As I write this letter, I am in my living room, with a hand painted portrait of the Black Madonna I was given in Poland gazing down upon me. Her serenity, her dignity, her beauty and her love never cease to move me. Let us pray. Holy Mother of Czestochowa, Thou art full of grace, goodness and mercy. I consecrate to Thee all my thoughts, words and actions, my soul and body. I beseech Thy blessings and especially prayers for my salvation. Today, I consecrate myself to Thee, Good Mother, totally, with body and soul amid joy and sufferings to obtain for myself and others Thy blessings on this earth and eternal life in Heaven.

God bless you,
Father Szolack

Pray for our Military men and women: Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform for us in our time of need. Bring them home safely. May their sacrifices bring about a lasting and just peace in all lands.

We ask this in the name of Jesus, Our Lord and Savior. Amen.

While many of you are busy with “back to school” shopping, we hope you will consider dropping off an item or two to help us meet the needs of many families in our community. Providing food is one way we can ease their burden. If your budget allows, PLEASE pick up one of our needed items and drop it off when you come to Mass or on Saturday mornings at the parish center between 9 & 11:00 am. These are basics that really help keep bellies full before and after school. SHOP RITE GIFT CERTIFICATES & POOR BOX donations are also welcome and appreciated. Thank you!

The Diocese, with Our Lady of Hope Parish and all the churches in the Diocese, has partnered with the Catholic Leadership Institute of Malvern, PA, and is on a journey to know, to love, and to serve Christ as a community of faith.

The very first step in this process involves assessing our greatest strengths and opportunities and that is where the Disciple Maker Index (DMI) comes in. The DMI is an important survey tool that invites you to reflect on your journey here at Our Lady of Hope Parish.

Please take the DMI survey today! You can scan the QR code below or copy / cut and paste the link below into your browser.

Your input helps to strengthen our Parish. The results of the survey will help leadership prepare for the future. A report of the findings will be shared when they become available from the Catholic Leaders Institute.

All responses will be confidential. Our Lady of Hope will only receive information about the community as a whole. We are blessed in so many ways. Together, we will identify our strengths and opportunities in greater detail.

Please continue to pray for this intention and for the growth and protection of our Parish.

Welcome to Catechists Corner

Meet Kimberly Prendergast. Kim grew up in OLOH parish and attended St. Jude's School. Her parents brought her & her siblings to Mass every weekend to learn the teachings of the Church. Kim married her spouse David at St. Jude's and they bring their family of 3 to weekly Mass. Kim is an elementary school teacher and uses her classroom experience to help children learn more about God and His teachings. She enjoys teaching lessons in the Grotto, seeing the smiles on the kids faces after confession, and sharing personal stories of faith. We are blessed by her gifts of time and talent.

Saints Corner:

Saint Philomena was born to pagan parents. St. Philomena's family ruled the Greek island of Corfu. Her parents had been unable to conceive a child, and after many prayers to the gods, realized that their prayers were going unanswered because the gods they had been praying to were false and did not exist. They converted to Christianity and bore a daughter. They named her Philomena, meaning "lover of light." St. Philomena was raised in the Christian faith and developed a strong love for Christ. At the age of thirteen, St. Philomena traveled with her parents to Rome. The Roman emperor Diocletian had threatened St. Philomena's father with a war, and he had to meet with the emperor to attempt to make peace. When her family was admitted to an audience with Emperor Diocletian, the emperor's eyes fell upon St. Philomena at once. He was taken by her beauty and insisted that she should marry him. St. Philomena refused, though, stating that she had promised herself to God alone and would marry no man. Overcome with anger at being rejected, the emperor had St. Philomena thrown into a dungeon. Emperor Diocletian made several other attempts to entice St. Philomena to marry him – and every time she stated she would not marry him because she had consecrated herself to God alone. The emperor had her tortured severely, almost to the point of death. She was bound to a pillar and scourged mercilessly. After the torture was finished, the emperor had her brought back to the prison to die. However, she was given strength by God and continued to live. In another attempt to kill her, Emperor Diocletian had his men take St. Philomena to the river and tie a large anchor around her neck. He was sure she would not survive this attempt at drowning, and that this would terrify her into agreeing to marry him. He was wrong. St. Philomena again rejected his offer of marriage, and so was thrown in the river to drown. Yet, she survived. Frustrated, the emperor had his men throw her in the river again. And once more, she survived. Wholly angered at his inability to convince her to marry him, as well as his inability to kill her, Emperor Diocletian ordered his men to shoot her with arrows until she was dead. However, still St. Philomena survived. Emperor Diocletian became even more enraged at finding out that the people of Rome were turning from the false gods and converting to Christianity. Determined to put a stop to his embarrassment in being unable to both convince St. Philomena to marry him and to kill her for rejecting him, Emperor Diocletian ordered that St. Philomena should be beheaded. St. Philomena was martyred for her faith and singular devotion to Christ in 304.
