Stewardship Givers

"I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury. For they all contributed out of their abundance; but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, her whole living." (Mark 12:43-44)

Jesus gets right to the point – Stewards are all called to give money to support the mission of the Church, regardless of our circumstance. No gift is too small or insignificant! Giving money to support the mission of our local parish is a matter of our faith, just like praying and participating in parish ministries. When you make a financial offering, is it from your "first fruits" or from what is "left over"?

A MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR, REV. JOSEPH T. SZOLACK

Dear Friends in Christ,

We pray for our beloved dead during the month of November. Death is a fact for all of us no matter how much or how little we have. Death has been described as the “Great Equalizer.” It is thought by many that everyone goes to heaven when they die; it does not matter how they lived their life and what was their relationship with God. Pope Benedict XVI said so often, “They live as though there was no God.” The Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1021-1022 says, “Death puts an end to human life as the time open to either accepting or rejecting the divine grace manifested in Christ. The New Testament speaks of judgment primarily in its aspect of the final encounter with Christ in his second coming, but also repeatedly affirms that each will be rewarded immediately after death in accordance with his works and faith. The parable of the poor man Lazarus and the words of Christ on the cross to the good thief, as well as other New Testament texts speak of a final destiny of the soul – a destiny which can be different for some and for others. Each man receives his eternal retribution in his immortal soul at the very moment of his death, in a particular judgment that refers his life to Christ: either entrance into the blessedness of heaven-through purification or immediately, or immediate and everlasting damnation.” The famous quote from the movie Braveheart is so true, “Every man dies, not every man really lives.” How we live is essential to where we go when this life ends and how we will spend eternity. In the Catholic faith, our Church teaches us great respect for the body. When I was first ordained, a body could be cremated after death but was not brought into the church. The Church now permits a cremated body contained in an urn to be brought into the church for a Funeral Mass. The Church teaches that cremation is licit so long as one does not disdain the body which is anointed at Baptism and Confirmation. The ashes of the cremated are not to be scattered but are to be placed in the earth or a crypt in imitation of Our Savior. We should not keep an urn in our home. I recall someone telling me that when they bought a home, they found two urns containing ashes in the attic! Absolutely forbidden in our faith is the separation of the ashes of the deceased to distribute amongst loved ones or to have ashes placed in jewelry to be worn as earrings or in a necklace. This is becoming a trend, but it is to be avoided. This is the most vulnerable time for a family and certainly we want to send off our dear ones with the gift of the Holy Mass which helps them to reach the place prepared for them for all time. We are blessed in our parish to have two groups that carry out beautiful ministry: the Bereavement Committee which helps the families to plan their deceased loved one’s Mass and the Grief Support Ministry who follow up and help people get through the pain of losing a loved one through death. All the names on the All-Souls envelopes will be on the altar for the month and will be prayed for. This entire month of November finds us celebrating votive Masses in honor of the faithful departed. It is so important to pray for the dead so that they may be cleansed in purgatory and then go before the Lord in Heaven. Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon them. Amen. May they rest in peace. Amen. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed rest in peace. Amen.

God bless you,
Father Szolack

Pray for our Military men and women: Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform for us in our time of need. Bring them home safely. May their sacrifices bring about a lasting and just peace in all lands.

We ask this in the name of Jesus, Our Lord and Savior. Amen.

NEED: TURKEYS!!, PASTA SAUCE, PASTA, PEANUT BUTTER and JELLY

Beginning next Saturday, we will provide turkeys and trimmings to our clients as long as supplies last. Unlike past years, it is difficult to know how many families will depend on us for their Thanksgiving meal, but with your help no one will be turned away. Nonperishables can be left in the church gathering space but please do not leave turkeys in the church as there is no refrigeration there. Turkeys should be dropped at the parish center on any Saturday between 9 and 11:00 am. Also needed...TURKEYS, HAMS, GRAVY, CRANBERRY SAUCE & YAMS (preferably smaller cans). Thank you for your generosity and cooperation.

Saint Martin of Tours:

Saint Martin of Tours was the son of a Roman army officer. His parents were not Christian. When Martin was a boy they moved from Hungary to Italy where he was introduced to priests who taught him about Jesus. He listened to the stories about Christ's love for the poor, sick and sorrowful. He heard Jesus' words calling us to love God and one another. When he was ten, he told his parents he wanted to be baptized and follow Christ. They refused his wish. When he was 15 his father enrolled him into the Roman army. As a soldier, Martin treated everyone with love. He once helped a beggar who was freezing by giving his coat to him. That night he had a dream where he saw Jesus wearing his coat. He knew the meaning of that dream... "Whatever you do the least of mine, you do to me". Martin became baptized and resigned from the Army. After he resigned, he was armed with only a cross for his protection. He used his words in the army of Christ. He studied under Saint Hilary, a bishop. He then converted his mother. He returned to France where he started a monastery. Ten years later, when the Bishop of Tours dies, the people asked Martin to be this bishop. As bishop, Martin traveled to help people. He founded another monastery where he trained priests to take the Gospel to the poor. When Martin dies, he was immediately honored as a saint. His feast day is November 11th and he is the patron saint of France, soldiers, horses, horse-riders, beggars, geese, and winegrowers.

Welcome to Catechists Corner

Meet Stephanie Short. She's been a catechist for 10 yrs & teaching 1st grade in public school for 25 yrs. Stephanie grew up in a home where serving Jesus and His Church was the norm. Her mother ran CCD, her father coached CYO baseball, cantered, and sang in the choir. Stephanie is following the example set by her parents 'to give back to God and the Church'. A favorite memory for Stephanie is seeing & hearing her Dad sing at Mass with her own children being thrilled at seeing their grandfather at the ambo or in the choir doing what he loved.
