Stewards Love

"But rather, love your enemies and do good to them, and lend without expecting anything back..." - LUKE 6:35

Easier said than done, right? But, in Stewardship, we are to imitate Christ. Most of us need to practice mercy and compassion more frequently. Start with the little daily annoyances that we experience, the unkind word or hateful glance we receive. Instead of plotting revenge on that person, try saying a quick prayer for that person. Praying for our enemies doesn't change them, it changes us. Mercy and compassion will keep us on the path to holiness.

A MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR, REV. JOSEPH T. SZOLACK

Dear Friends in Christ,

We know that the Roman Catholic Church is in a crisis in that the majority of those baptized Catholics do not understand the true majesty of the Real Presence, the Holy Eucharist confectioned at the Holy Mass. Saint Padre Pio once said, "It would be easier for the world to exist without the sun than without the Holy Mass." He would also go on to say, "At times during the Mass I am consumed by the fire of Divine Love. My face seems to burn." Such love! If the Catholic faith is to stay strong, we must love Him and adore Him in the Most Blessed Sacrament. We need to bolster our own devotion to the Lord. We know that there is great persecution of true Catholics in China to this day. In his autobiography entitled Treasure in Clay, Archbishop Fulton Sheen writes about a true incident that took place in China. He wrote, "A priest had just begun Mass when Communists entered and arrested him and made him a prisoner . . . Shortly after his imprisonment, the Communists opened the tabernacle, threw the Hosts on the floor, and stole the Sacred Vessels . . . About three o'clock one morning, he saw a child who had been at the morning Mass open a window, climb in, come to the sanctuary floor, get down on both knees, press her tongue to the Host to give herself Holy Communion . . . Every single night she came at the same time until there was only one Host left. As she pressed her tongue to receive the Body of Christ, a shot rang out. A Communist soldier had seen her. It proved to be her Viaticum." Viaticum is when one receives Holy Communion for the last time before one dies. If we only truly realized the gift we have as Catholics nothing would keep us from receiving Him; from adoring Him. We continue to have our times for confession. Remember, the Church continues to teach that if one is in mortal sin, then receiving Holy communion in that state is a sacrilege. The more we spend time adoring Him, the more reverently we will receive Holy Communion. We will not one hand, grab the Sacred Host and pop It in our mouth. We will, lovingly, receive Him on the tongue or allow the Sacred Host to be placed on our hand (one hand beneath the other). We will be in hushed awe whenever in the church where the Tabernacle containing the Lord's Presence resides. May the Lord's Real Presence fill us with the fragrance of God's love and change our lukewarm hearts into furnaces of love for Jesus! To quote Saint Peter Julian Eymard, "The Eucharist is everything, because from the Eucharist, everything is."

God bless you,
Father Szolack

Pray for our Military men and women: Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform for us in our time of need. Bring them home safely. May their sacrifices bring about a lasting and just peace in all lands.

We ask this in the name of Jesus, Our Lord and Savior. Amen.

As the freezing temperatures continue and we all try to stay warm, please remember that not everyone has warm clothing, money to pay their heat bill and a pantry full of nourishing food to warm their body. This is where St. Vincent de Paul comes in – striving to provide food staples each week to the many families who depend on us. It's one way to lessen the burden of our neighbors. I know we say it nearly every week, but your constant generosity is greatly appreciated.
